IV Writing

Task A: A letter to your Future self

Hi, dear future me! I am writing you this letter with hope that you will recall this period of your life in the future, recall me from 2023 and also with intension to share my news, plans and achievements with you. Currently, I am in 10th grade of school. I am studying well, actually I like studying in my school, especially I am a big fan of chemistry, math and English lessons. I hope you will continue studying^{well} in future and get a master degree in certain field. Few months ago I started playing chess and recently even participated in chess tournament. That was crazy, I have never actually experienced that sort of atmosphere again before! That day I won 3 out of 3 of my games. From my hobby list I also like reading in my leisure time, playing basketball and meet with my few friends. Now I think of myself as a very organized and pretty ambitious person, I got a lot of plans and aims to implement in future and I am sure that ^{studying} English would lead this things to ^{come true}.

To be honest, I haven't decided which degree I want to study yet, but I hope you will be a good specialist in your field, ~~which~~ definitely will help people.

I advise you not to stop learning languages, because it is an essential tool which can help you not only in professional life, but also to diversify the way you live at all. I believe that you ~~implemen-~~^{ed} all your plans and goals, and now I'm trying to help you to do it by making efforts towards our goals. And the last thing to say - I support you and believe in you, listen to your inner voice and keep working for our future!
